

12-September-2008

To whom it may concern

This is to authenticate or validate the authority of Chong Sun Fu as an Executive Director of Asia Pacific for our company. He has been duly appointed to represent our business in the designated area, working closely with the Corporate Team in the US to facilitate the optimal growth of exFuze in the region.

We in the US corporate headquarters here appreciate his invaluable experience and feedback of your local culture and needs. We therefore assure you of an International company that not only Thinks Global but is willing to Act Local for our mutual success. We hope that you can feel the true spirit of our elite management to make exFuze a home for its distributors worldwide.

We therefore invite you to work closely with Sun Fu and use his talents & experience in building a successful long term business in network marketing. We trust that he will be totally focused to facilitate your success and that of your group whom you will lead. We back him up 100% and even more if possible.

We welcome you from your country to enjoy the benefits that we have gathered from the Seven Seas of the world!

Yours sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink that reads "Rick Cotton, CEO". The signature is written in a cursive, slightly slanted style.

Rick Cotton

Founder, Chairman and CEO